

She Is Woman

MINER

Far beneath this world we live in
Cavernous, subterraneous
Un-excavated, labyrinthian

MINER & RUST

She is woman
The compliment
And taunt
Of man

MINER

She is the cavernous night
A damp and cool
Wading pool
A relaxing, rippling
Liquid sight
A complex catacombed delight

The creaking wooden beams
Are falling
Dripping echoes deep within
Are calling

Through the tunnels

A hard cold wind
Is wailing

MINER & RUST

For men who dare
Her hypnotic stare -
Their failing

Woman steals
Your fate is sealed
All others
Beware
Beware

MINER

She is a wonder to me
A mineralogical masterpiece
A font for inspiration
Creativity and spirituality
A perplexing curiosity

MINER & RUST

She is woman
The compliment
And taunt
Of man

A deep intent to care

With some deep resent
To share
A basic fact:
A vampirous bat
A fly trap
A honey-laden snare

MINER

Well, who knows how man will fare
When disregarding
The sign at the entrance
Which reads:

MINER & RUST

Beware
Beware
